

Puerto Vallarta Villa 1507

Puerto Vallarta, Mexico

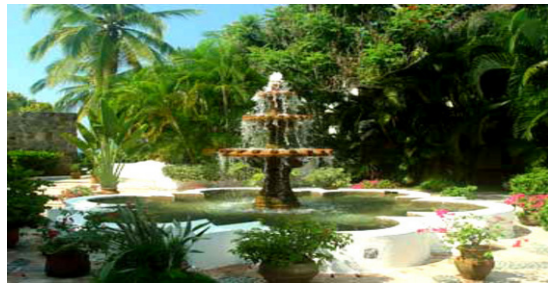

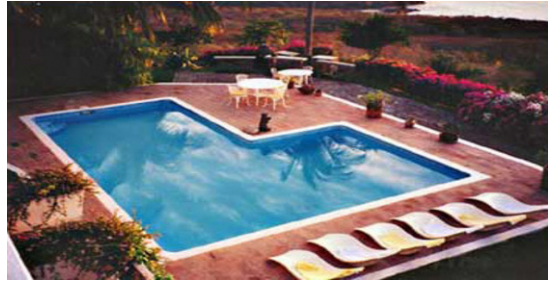

KEY INFORMATION:

| Rating | Beds | Baths | Sleeps | Weekly Low | Weekly High | Weekly Peak |
|--------|------|-------|--------|------------|-------------|-------------|
| ★★★★ | 10 | 10 | 19 | Contact Us | Contact Us | Contact Us |

VILLA IMAGES

VILLA DESCRIPTION

VILLA 1507 IN PUERTO VALLARTA, MEXICO

Villa 1507 (Villa with a beautiful view) is located on an exclusive, private, hilltop estate, overlooking the magnificent west coast of Mexico, south of Puerto Vallarta. Its breathtaking views, warm climate, and restful atmosphere make the perfect place to renew body and spirit.

In addition to your luxurious guest room, you may find yourself lounging on a chaise by the beautifully sunlit pool. A private path leads to a secluded cove with an excellent white sand beach for swimming, snorkeling and sunbathing.

Upon entering the villa you will encounter breathtaking bougainvillea and palms swaying in the ocean breeze.

The estate spreads over five and one-half beautifully landscaped acres featuring tropical gardens, thousands of flowering plants, three exquisite handcrafted fountains and orchards of bananas, plum, lime, mango, and papaya.

Villa Interior - The villa accommodations include six guest rooms with bathrooms, a two bedroom suite with bathroom, a sumptuous open air palapa suite (with his and hers bathrooms), and a two bedroom "granny flat" with its own kitchenette, as well as staff residences. The main house is in the colonial style with expansive living and dining spaces. Employees of the villa will cater to your every need. These talented individuals include a fulltime gourmet chef and a cheerful staff. They will ensure your stay at the villa is comfortable, enjoyable and convenient.

Location - Villa 1507 is on the Pacific Coast of Mexico between the towns of Puerto Vallarta and Manzanillo. (Along federal highway 200, at km. 63)

Puerto Vallarta is famous for the filming of the Night of the Iguana and being the place where Liz and Richard fell in love. Many people remember Bo Derek in the movie "10" in Manzanillo's Las Hadas hotel. Both of the cities can be visited during your stay.