VILLA DESCRIPTION

VILLA 608 IN TAUPO, NEW ZEALAND

This lodge is a member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World (SLH) and has been operating for five years. Catering mainly to visitors from the US, Central Europe, the UK, and Asia, the Villa also has experienced an increase of guests from other parts of the world.

Privacy is the key word, with seven luxury suites creating an intimate atmosphere. Situated above beautiful Acacia Bay on the north-western shores of Lake Taupo, the lodge commands panoramic views over the water to the mountains beyond. The lodge stands amidst mature park-like gardens, where the native birds, Tui and Bellbirds abound. Guests can relax in the quiet surroundings of the lodge, yet it is only five minutes drive from the centre of Taupo township. Built in 1984 in stone and mahogany timber, the Art Nouveau interiors incorporate spacious living areas and four luxury guest suites, with another three nearby.

This lodge caters for everything from a honeymoon to a private hideaway. With New Zealand's largest lake on its doorstep, guests not only experience the ever-changing scenery, but also the best trout fishing in the world.

Facilities

- an all-weather tennis court
- spa
