VILLA DESCRIPTION

VILLA 1349 IN SRI LANKA, SRI LANKA

High on a hill, yet within minutes of the city centre, and with magnificent views of the UN World Heritage site of Galle Fort, This Villa has set the pace in redefining luxury accommodation for the individual traveller in Sri Lanka. Highly exclusive with only four suites this country house built in 1712 ensures complete privacy for its guests.

Spacious living areas, an English tropical garden complete with croquet lawn and treetop infinity pool provides ample space for guests to find a quiet area in which to truly unwind. Period Dutch antiques reflect its early 18th century origins but blend in well with its contemporary collection of art. The perfect place for either beginning or ending your travels in Sri Lanka.
